2 MARINES SHOT AS SAILORS AND POLICE CLASH

Waukegan Scene of New Race Riot.

Two marines were wounded last night in a clash between 150 liberty men from the Great Lakes naval training station and the police of Waukegan.

The jackies and marines were trying to storm the Sherman house as an attempt to the race rioting that broke out Monday night after colored boys had stoned the automobile of a naval lieutenant riding through Waukegan and injured his wife. The Sherman house is occupied entirely by Negroes.

One of the wounded men is John Brown of the 15th regiment of marines at Fort Sheridan. He was shot in the mouth. The other, whose name was not given out by the naval authorities, is at the Great Lakes hospital, shot in the leg and in the back. Neither is seriously hurt.

Police Attack.

The police had been informed that the jackies and marines intended to burn the hotel, and that they would rush upon the structure at 10 o'clock, carrying torches and gasoline. The police, armed with riot guns, and aided by a number of overseas veterans, also armed, waited for the attack.

Finally at 10 o'clock the jackies poured out of the ravine back of the hotel where they had mobilized. The negroes fled from the hotel. Some of them carried their belongings. Women dragged their children by the hands and held babies in their arms.

A sailor led the attackers. He carried the American flag. The police commanded the sailors to halt. No attention was paid to the command.

Police Capture Flag.

The police fired a volley into the air. The jackies came on. There were several hand to hand fights. The riot guns seemed to have a soothing effect on the mob.

The police seized the flag and two marines, and locked up their prisoners in the station house.

The attack on the hotel lost its lure. Marines and sailors began to mill around the station, demanding the release of the captives.

An appeal was sent to Rear Admiral Frederick B. Bassett, commanding the naval training station, and Commander M. M. Frucht, the executive officer.

Rush Three Loads of Guards.

The provost guard was ordered to Waukegan. Three truck loads of marines were rushed into the town with orders to round up all the sailors they could find.

Commander Frucht, in front of the police station, addressed the crowd, commanding them to disperse and go back to the station.

"Release those marines and give back our flag and we'll go," Frank Forte, a marine, said.

Commander Frucht ordered his arrest. The prisoners were turned over and the flag was given back. The provost guard arrived, and soon the road to Great Lakes was crowded with the "gobs." The flag that had led the attack was buried.

May Close Waukegan to Gobs.

"We are taking every precaution to prevent a recurrence of these disgraceful occurrences," Rear Admiral Bassett said.

"I may have to issue an order deeming Waukegan forbidden ground for the men of this station. I should hate to do this, because there have been such friendly feelings between the station and the city of Waukegan."

WARNING OF JAIL DELIVERY BRINGS GUARD OF POLICE

Reports of a threatened jail delivery in the county jail caused Sheriff Charles Peters to surround the institution last night with policemen.

The report was to the effect that the delivery was to be accomplished on the eve of the day set for the hanging of four murderers—Friday, June 13.

Guards have been warned, and in the event of trouble will be armed not only with rifles, but also with bombs. Every precaution, however, is being taken to forestall the alleged plot.

Irish Women Pickets Burn British Flag

(By a Staff Correspondent.)

Washington, D. C., June 2.—(Special.)—Unrestrained by the authorities, the women pickets in the cause of Irish freedom burned the British "Union Jack" in front of the United States treasury building today.

In the presence of hundreds of persons the women of the "American Pickett association" set fire to the flag during a demonstration denouncing "English despotism in Ireland" and calling on America to come to the aid of the Irish people.

The women set the first match to the flag at 11:15 o'clock. After they had paraded down Pennsylvania avenue, they stopped in front of the treasury and formed a semicircle.

While Miss Mary Keena of Newark, N. J., held the banner in the air Miss Kathleen Savage of Everett, Mass., sprinkled oil on it and Miss Helen O'Brien of Boston applied the lighted match. Then the pickets gathered around while their photographs were taken.

WILL DECIDE IF SUFFRAGE FIGHT IS TO CONTINUE

GENEVA, June 2.—[By the Associated Press.]—This is to be the most important conference for woman suffrage ever held," said Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt, president of the International Women Suffrage alliance, in a statement today regarding the conference which will open here Sunday, June 6.

"The question," she said, "will be settled as to whether the woman's alliance should dissolve completely, as its work is nearly accomplished, or whether it should continue its work in order to obtain woman suffrage in other countries which still do not possess it."

"We will also decide whether we should continue work in favor of good citizenship and good fellowship between the women and men of all countries."

Turkish Nationalists Win Along Sea of Marmora

CONSTANTINOPLE, May 31.—Turkish nationalist forces have occupied Puli and Adahazar, near the eastern end of the Gulf of Ismid. They are approaching Ismid and Chendek, and are already in possession of the whole coast south of the Gulf of Ismid and the Sea of Marmora.

HUGE NEW HOTEL FOR BOULEVARD, WITH 'SKY' BEACH

Projected for Chicago Avenue Corner.

BY AL CHASE.

A real estate sale announced yesterday involving property at Chicago and North Michigan avenue, is a preliminary step to the construction of another large hotel—the Illinois, which is to have its unique features and which it is said will cost $7,500,000 including the furnishings.

The Illinois is to be built on the site of the Winston and Dudley apartments, facing west on North Michigan, just south of Chicago avenue. The site is 152 feet on Michigan boulevard and 110 feet on Chicago avenue.

The Johnson play, according to the local gossip, is to make just as formidable a display of strength as has any of the other candidates. His headquarters let it be known that the California is about to arrive all set to handle without gloves the situation as it finds it. The statements that came from his managers indicated that he has no quarrel to give and he is asking none. His appearance in the convention city is to be attended with spectacular trimmings. Some of his enthusiasts assert that his reception will even be greater than the reception that attended the arrival of Col. Roosevelt in the 1912 convention period.

G. O. P. BIG THREE ALL FOR SQUARE DEAL FOR LABOR

Records Show Deeds in Workers' Behalf.

BY ARTHUR M. EVANS.

One of the main hurdles in the race for the White House will be the industrial problem. Domestic questions next fall will undoubtedly back the issues of nations off the boards as the great factor in the voting, and of these one of the most important is the item of industrial relations.

As usual, the American Federation of Labor, which meets Monday at Montreal, announced yesterday that it would send some of its strongest men to both Republican and Democratic conventions to advance its program before the platform committees. The labor planks this time will be watched with far greater interest than even in 1916, the year when the vote over the "anti-injunction" planks was an outstanding feature of the Chicago and Denver conventions.

Big Three Views Similar.

A close-up view of the three leading Republican candidates—Lowden, Wood and Johnson—reveals a marked similarity of attitude toward the labor question. The Big Three G. O. P. candidates display nothing like the shadings which over in the Democratic camp, for instance, make McAdoo stronger than Palmer with labor, and Gov. Cox possibly stronger than McAdoo.

All three, Wood, Johnson and Lowden, have labor leaders of prominence among their backers. They all occupy advanced positions. Lowden, according to the "interpretative" ink-splatters of the highbrow magazines, is a middle-of-the-road man. As a matter of fact, he is in line with the industrial leaders that have come up in the last three years. Lowden has been leaning towards labor. The labor lobby at Springfield can bear witness to this, as can any observer who was in close touch with the strike situations since the armistice.

Prize Wood's Gary Moves.

Gen. Wood, according to one set of scientificists, is "in Dutch" with labor, on account of the strike situation at Gary. As a matter of fact, Wood handles affairs there in such a way that even the radical leaders of the AFL like him, the alien disturbance recommended his course.

He went with federal troops into the Gary sector at the call of the governor of Indiana; he at once called in committees representing both sides and brushed things out; his first acts were to permit picketing so long as it was done in a peaceful manner.

He threw down the bar for free assemblies so long as there were no incendiary speeches and no attacks on the government, and he made ex-servicemen among the steel plant guards take off their uniforms.

He handled the affair in such a way that John Fitzpatrick, organizer of the steel and iron leaders, said: "There is more liberty in Gary since Wood came than before."

Gary, like Detroit, voted strongly against Wood in the presidential primaries, but labor leaders at Wood headquarters attribute this to a large foreign-born vote still under the influence of agitators who had inveigled against the industrial police, the courts—in short, against all restraining agencies of government.

"Never yet," said one Chicago labor leader, "has there been a place where Wood has been officially attacked by labor."

Gov. Lowden's Record.

Here's a condensed record: GOV. LOWDEN—Organized labor fought him for the primaries bitterly in 1916. Two years later, in the nomination of the State Federation of Labor, John H. Walker, president, a radical, said: "To me, Gov. Lowden has been an exceedingly agreeable surprise. He has not always given us what we wanted, but he has always given us a hearing and has always said what he would do and has not done it."

Referring to the governor's efforts in getting amendments to the workmen's compensation act which make that measure one of the most liberal of its kind in America, Mr. Walker said: "Gov. Lowden is more responsible for having the compulsory amendment enacted than any other man." The governor fought for an eight-hour law for women and took opposing

Advertisements That Produce

CHANGING conditions of business from a seller's to a buyer's market will force changes in advertising tactics and methods.

With a growing need for real sales, real consumer preference, with dealers buying only as consumers vote for your merchandise, we will re-enter an era of competition in advertising for sales.

You will demand that your advertisements talk sense just as your salesmen must.

This advertising will produce, because there is nothing more certain than advertising properly aimed, properly written, properly illustrated.

You will demand that your advertising agency comprehend business and help you get business.

At this crucial time when you are taking stock of your advertising forces, we call your attention to our organization. For sixteen years we have handled big campaigns reaching the nation. We have learned how to put advertising to work. But more than that, we have mastered the difficulties of developing an advertising policy that matches the needs of a business, whether that enterprise is national or local in scope.

We can help you win the people and will be pleased to confer with you on advertising plans, policies or costs.

Convention Brings Friendly Enemies and Friendly Friends Together

DOVER DEFEAT DOESN'T DISMAY WOMAN'S PARTY

Suffragists to Renew Fight at Chicago.

By a Staff Correspondent.
Washington, D. C., June 2.—(Special to the Tribune)—After the announcement of the defeat of the suffrage amendment by the Delaware legislature 5,000 appeals were sent out tonight by the National Woman's party to suffragists in the middle west asking them to take part in the protest demonstration at Chicago on June 8.

The Delaware legislature failed to act in spite of a personal appeal to the state by President Wilson. The president's telegram, given out at the White House today, was addressed to Assemblers J. J. Mulvane, J. A. Mulrine, and J. E. McNabb, and was as follows:

"May I not, as a Democrat, express my deep interest in the suffrage amendment and my judgment that it would be of the greatest service to the party if every Democrat in the Delaware legislature should vote for it?"

Three Votes Were Enough.

It was said if these three votes had been won ratification would have been assured.

The call to the demonstration of protest before the Republican convention was signed by Alice Paul, chairman of the National Woman's party, just before she left for Chicago to organize the suffrage forces.

Telegrams have been received at the Washington headquarters today from members of the party throughout the west announcing that they will attend the convention in Chicago. The Chicago branch of the Woman's party is securing accommodations for the suffragists in the homes of the local members of the party and other Chicago women who sympathize with the work.

Suffrage Fight Lost.

Dover, Del., June 2.—The Delaware legislature adjourned Saturday at 1:30 p. m. today without ratifying the Susan B. Anthony federal suffrage amendment. There was a vote to shorten before adjournment when Representative Lyons, majority floor leader, attempted to force the house into committee of the whole to consider the suffrage ratification resolution. Mr. Lyons' motion was lost by 24 votes to 10.

"Anti" Call It Victory.

Baton Rouge, La., June 2.—Passage of the suffrage amendment by the Louisiana legislature today of 10 to 9, in spite of a state constitution to give women the right to vote was hailed by anti-suffragists as indicating the defeat of the federal ratification resolution. Supporters of federal ratification, however, refused to concede defeat. The vote on the state amendment bill was 93 to 17, far in excess of the necessary two-thirds. Those in favor of ratification of the federal amendment for the most part have opposed the state amendment bill.

Hats Off to the Women; Their Hats Are Off for Convention

By LEOLA ALLARD.

A word to the wise is far superior to a harvest of unpopularity. The men want it understood, because they want to be nice and polite at the convention, that all women are expected to remove their hats.

Mrs. Raymond Robins said yesterday: "I have spoken in public years enough to have learned that it is a great deal easier and more inspiring to talk to a sea of faces rather than to a set of hats. Women, please wear plain, small hats and take them off as soon as you enter the hall. This is serious business, not a milliner's convention."

Mrs. Raymond Robins spoke yesterday on the bluffs in the league of nations. When Holland refused to turn over the German Kaiser to the allies said a few things and backed down. It's horrible to think how many bluffs there are and what a treat she went on.

"If the club women of America could only understand how much bluff and red tape there is between that great result and the suffrage fight lost."

Mrs. Katherine T. Hammer and Miss Helen Bayne, society girl from South Manchester, Conn., worked hard to stonewall for the German Kaiser, but if she were to turn over the German Kaiser to the allies by any means, she would understand more about the presidential timber before them."

Miss Harratt Vitum, who knows how to make them do what is right with her strong power of suggestion, declared: "Of course, they are going to take their hats off, the moment they are seated. They wouldn't think of doing anything else."

Mrs. Katherine T. Hammer, alternate from the 19th congressional district of New York, who will sit in the convention as proxy for Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler, is at the LaSalle hotel. Mrs. Hammer was born in Illinois.

In referring to the money expenditure investigation in Washington, Mrs. Robins said it reminded her of the man who chiseled the neighbors' house for stone in his garden, and his boy stole some he thought it was a cute trick. She declared that the time is near when there will be membership dues paid by all members of a party. They will be small, but they will produce millions with little effort.

The wife of Gen. Wood refused to talk about politics or anything else connected with her husband's campaign, but she did give generously of her services, folding folders and licking stamps.

houses are running wide open. A condition is presented of notorious and infamous violation of the law. The saloons run wide open and sell whisky openly and 3 or 4 per cent beer."

"One can go right in and order whisky over the counter and get it," said Senator Kenyon.

"Certainly," Judge Bonniwell described this condition as prevailing in Lackawanna, Luzerne, and Schuylkill counties, and reiterated that Mr. Palmer's law partner is district attorney there.

Made Fortune in Campaign.

"Why," he said, "three or four men are declared to have made $3,000,000 to $4,000,000 out of the campaign by reason of the relaxation of prohibition enforcement. A. J. Casinelli, a rich liquor dealer at Scranton, is a Palmer delegate, and Charles A. Fagin of Pittsburgh, a delegate at large for Palmer, and counsel for the brewers and distillers. The prohibition enforcement officer in Lackawanna, Mr. Gandy, is Democratic county chairman; or was last year. The district enforcement officer is Lee Crossman, a brother-in-law of O'Brien. In short, all the department of justice or prohibition enforcement officers in the state are parts of the Palmer organization.

Tells of Booze Traffic.

"Over across the state line in Ohio, there is a ring, with forty bands of whisky was seized, and it was found two depots United States marshals were conveying it to insure its safe delivery. It was Pennsylvania whisky, being taken across the state line to Ohio. Last week in New Jersey local officers stopped two trucks of whisky going to Summit Hill. The drivers innocently explained that they had lost their way; they were on the way to New York with federal passes for the delivery of the whisky. Why, those passes are issued as freely as one would issue passes to visit the zoo."

Judge Bonniwell produced one of the passes commenting on the ease with which he said they were to be procured.

Tells Why Was Beaten.

"I would have elected my delegate ticket and defeated Guffey for national committeeman," she wittily declared, "but for the relaxation of law enforcement during the campaign. Palmer's campaign was a complete farce. You can tell the effect of the loosening by the price of whisky. It was from $1,600 to $1,900 a barrel before the campaign; in the middle of the campaign it fell to $900 a barrel; watered down to 75 proof, it was sold at 75 cents a glass."

"You're going to make Palmer president if you go on with this line of testimony," interrupted Senator Reed amid laughter.

The committee wanted to know who promised to give the liquor dealers immunity. Judge Bonniwell replied that the agreement was made by the en-

"Never in the palmiest days of Quay or Martin was there such a condition as that multitudes of men have gone independently without prosecution while the roads from the warehouses have been worn into ruts by whisky trucks."

PALMER MAKES REPLY

At this point Attorney General Palmer took the stand.

"Oscillation I could not identify these statements by a denial," Mr. Palmer said, "but my good name is worth more to me than any office on earth. When my official integrity is attacked by men who have made a profession of character assassination, I demand the right to be heard."

Mr. Palmer added that, had Mr. Bonniwell's statement been made in Pennsylvania, he "would not have replied, because in Pennsylvania Judge Bonwell's word is no evidence of the fact." Senator Reed intervened, saying that Mr. Bonniwell had not been allowed to make a similar statement. Mr. Palmer said he would take oath, rather, that "I will affirm," Mr. Palmer is a Quaker.

"All this talk which was repeated here," he continued, "was spread broadcast throughout Pennsylvania in that election by Judge Bonniwell and his agents. The result was that not a single delegate supported by Judge Bonniwell was elected. The Democrats knew.

"The verdict was also that Mr. Bonniwell was defeated. Every candidate he supported was repudiated by the people."

"Judge Bonniwell, stinging under constant defeat, has burnt his bridge behind him, to charge not only his enemies but his friends.

"Men of the organized liquor traffic told me face to face how Judge Bonniwell's nomination for governor two years ago was dictated by the leader of the Republican party, whom we are supposed to fight on a plan born in his office."

"I believed it. As the party leader in my state I exposed the whole business. I repudiated the candidate of my party. I asked them to do the same which they did."

"Again the rules of evidence were brought up, and Mr. Bonniwell asked to be heard for five minutes rebuttal.

"I have talked with him about it for hours, from dinner until 2 o'clock in the morning—and he can't be budged on the matter. He simply won't have anything to do with it. He won't get into a fight. He wants the delegates to go uninstructed and nominate the strongest man."

JOHNSON-HOOVER

Investigation of the Johnson-Hoover primary contest in California last month was then resumed, with J. H.

ROSESTER, formerly director of operations of the shipping board, as the first witness.

Mr. Rosster was chairman of the fund for Senator Johnson.

"We raised approximately $115,000."

Mr. Rosster said: "I understand the books will be produced here."

A budget had been made up, he continued, in the expectation "that $2,000 would be spent in each of ten primary states," and altogether that $125,000 would be needed.

"Delegates from southern California got a little pool of their own up; they don't care how much."

"As the Hoover campaign developed we asked the southern people to take care of themselves."

Total Johnson Fund $125,000.

On May 15, Mr. Rosster said, the total Johnson Fund "just failed" to reach $125,000."

"I had nothing to do with the small subscriptions," he added, "which were still coming in when I left."

With the completion of Mr. Roson the subpoena of the committee, one of which is Warren G. Harding.

G.O.P. FACTIONS UNITE TO SWEAR WAR ON MAYOR

Deneen and Brundage Men Sign Treaty.

The Deneen and Brundage elements of the Republicans cemented their union in meeting with a banquet at the Hotel Madison. Their first purpose is to wreck the Thompson-Lundin machine in the fall primary, but they have agreed to agree, not for one 'tittle, but for the whole war, of eliminating an organization built on Democrats, repeaters and vast sums to corrupt the electorate."

The "Big Four" and "Little Fred" must have turned in one another after another buried charges against the city hall organization to the vigorous applause of the 421 persons present.

Speakers Assail Machine.

"This will be an anti-Thompson organization," said George F. Porter. "There is a big shock coming to the Thompson-Lundin organization, and it will come before the convention. It will arrive next Monday, when the national committeeman from Illinois is elected. The organization stands for Gov. Lowden."

The Thompson-Lundin crowd has shown what propaganda will do," said Thomas J. Healy. "It has shown the enormous influence the ward committeemen have in the league of nations. That sort of propaganda has force unless combated."

Charles Party Treason.

This bipartisan machine started its real construction while the three colonels present and other fighters of the great war were across the sea seeking to save this nation," said Attorney General Brundage. "In this city the Republicans are the only ones who have power. The Democratic president was drunk with power. He appealed to the nation to elect a Democratic congress that he might become the sole dictator. The Republican mayor of this city then supported the Democratic candidate for the United States senate. Had this mayor succeeded the Democratic vice president would have been given the balance of power."

Now every speaker asserted that the workers assembled had not been dictated the Republicans in the ward committee contests.

Says Democrats Voted.

"One of the best illustrations of this," said Brundage, "is found in the Rover house precinct of the Twenty-first ward. There in 1918 only one Republican voted a straight Republican ticket. On April 13 last the Thompson candidate received a majority of 139 votes. The city had crowded used resources never dreamed of before."

"While the campaign expenditures of presidential candidates caused little interest in Kansas, according to Charles F. Scott, for ten years congressman from the Second district and regent of the University of Kansas. He is editor of the Iola Register. Neither do they care for the primaries. They can't go on for ever spending $50, $100, and $150 a day on each candidate. They care for ever spending as they did in the first four months of this year when they gave $75,000 each to two experts."

"That organization is ruled by one man who hides from the bright light. Many of its main prop are insidious actions and lies."

Deneen Predicts Smash.

Former Gov. Deneen also predicted that the city hall machine will soon lose a tire and smash itself in a ditch.

"The mayor advises against any encroaching alliance," said Mr. Deneen, "but in my time I dared to make his entire political alliance with foreign prejudices, nationalist feeling, religious bigotry and business strife."

Upon these and false issues, aided by enormous funds, has their organization been built. That sort of an organization cannot endure. The mayor deserves his platform adopted by the Republicans of the nation. They cannot do it and win the election, and they wouldn't deserve to win if they adopted his platform."

Gives Democrats Support.

"In local affairs the mayor and his friends have supported Democrats. They turned the Republican city council into a Democratic council and at the same time into a Thompson council."

"Thompson has more influence with the Democratic than any Democrat in Chicago. You know and I know what that means. The men here represent the true Republicans."

PURELY PERSONAL AND NONFACTUAL

McAlister, Oklahoma, has sent the most interesting exhibit of hirsute regalia. Possessor, J. A. Whitcomb, a delegate, who is to be the next president. Mr. Whitcomb wears sideburns, a goatee, and a neck fringe. No man should be a razor slave, he claims. He prunes himself with a pair of manicure scissors.

"I'm wearing out my old clothes," reads a placard posted by McAlister, Okla. "I am the third son of M. Bounds, delegate from Collin, Mississippi. Mr. Bounds' costume yesterday consisted of a black felt fedora, a Palm Beach sack coat of creamy hue, and three-ply woolen trousers.

Honor Slain Hero

The boys of Allendale farm at Lake Villa, Ill., take pride in many things. "Muffin" Feager will proudly point out the fine points in the "newest" colt and "Heini" Peterson and Wilbur Casey, who play in the band, will put you a picture of their lives. But the proudest of which the boys of the proudest are the service flag in the chapel, with two gold stars, and an official bulletin recently received from Washington announcing that Destroyer No. 295, United States navy, has been named in honor of the commanding officer of W. E. Osborne, an Allendale boy.

Osborne, a dental surgeon, was the first navy officer killed in action overseas. He was struck by a shell during the advance on Bouresches, France, while carrying a wounded officer to safety.

At Allendale Farm nearly a hundred boys are taught farming, gardening, food preparation and household service in addition to the three R's.

One of the prominent visitors at the Coliseum yesterday was Thomas D. Smith of Shawnee, Kan. He is one of the state's best known attorneys and is now a candidate for membership in the Kansas Supreme court.

Among the prominent feminists in politics scheduled to arrive this week are Mrs. Abby Scott Baker, political chairman of the National Woman's party, and Mrs. Florence Bayard Hilles, chairman of the Delaware wing of the party. Mrs. Hilles is the daughter of Thomas F. Bayard, secretary of state under President Cleveland, and for years a senator from Delaware.

Senator Johnson will occupy room 505 in the Blackstone hotel on his arrival here today, and during the convention will have room 805, one floor above the personal headquarters of Gov. Lowden, who is in room 807-8-9 in the Blackstone.

National Committeewoman Patrick Sullivan of Wyoming, who is at the Auditorium, and admits Cheyenne would be an ideal convention city, says the Chicago traffic policemen are the finest body of men he has ever encountered. He likes their boosting instinct, he says. They are always blowing their horns.

Col. Abel Davis said that the Big Bill bunch does not represent the Republicans of Chicago and "cannot and should not be allowed to do so."

A large percentage of those present agreed to hustle for Gov. Lowden during the next week.

Roy O. West announced that Gov. Lowden, who is confined to his room by a cold, sent his best wishes to the senator. A telegram was read from Senator McCormick expressing his regret for not being present and wishing the meeting success.

150,000 AFTER 13,289 SEATS IN CONVENTION

Hays Gives Rules for Getting Them.

Demands for convention tickets have hit the 150,000 mark, Chairman Will H. Hays said yesterday. He attributes this great interest in the proceedings to the added interest of women in politics.

"We would like to accommodate every one," said Hays, "but 13,289 seats and standing room are not going to meet the seat demands, now estimated at 150,000. There are more than ten applications for every seat. The request from women is unprecedented. I am informed that there have been more than 1,100 applications for the 175 free seats."

The distribution of tickets is being made by the national committee strictly on the basis of states and on the allotment announced on May 20. The tickets and badges for each state will be delivered in sealed packages Saturday, who will be the sole distributors. The only of allotted tickets but also of badges.

"The exceptions to this rule are the tickets apportioned to the Chicago contributors to the national convention fund, to the presidential candidates, former officers of the national committee, ambassadors of foreign countries, and special guests. Such guests, however,

BIBLE BEST BOOK ON SALESMANSHIP, JOURNALIST ASSERTS

Cleveland, O., June 2.—The Bible is the best one volume book on modern business, Bruce Barton, author and journalist of New York, said today at the convention of the Federal Council of Churches of Christ in America.

"The Bible has the greatest record of salesmanship ever written," he said. "St. Paul sold religion to Athens when it was fearfully overstocked with religions of its own. And he did by lighting a spark of his own situation and utilizing a number of his own situations at hand, just as a modern salesmen must do."

"The great trouble with parsons is that they do not know what news is," Barton continued. "They must learn to trust the newspaper men. The things that Christ did were great news. They would be great news today. Peter's release from jail by reason of the earthquake would deserve a headline today."

POLISH SPEED SMASHES HOLE IN SOVIET'S LINE

Swift Advance Wins on Zitomir Front.

BY COL. HENRY J. REILLY.

[Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.]

[Copyright, 1920, by the Chicago Tribune Company.]

BERLIN, June 2.—The grand Polish offensive began at 4 o'clock on the morning of April 25 with a rapid advance in overwhelming force on the line of bolsheviki posts fronting the Third and Second Polish armies.

The advance was so sudden and overwhelming that larger bodies of Polish troops were able to drive the overwhelmed or driven from their positions. Full advantage was taken of the opportunity to flank these detachments by driving through the interior.

The Second Polish army was composed of three divisions. The center one drove straight for Zitomir. One infantry brigade with a battery of 75s mounted on motor trucks proceeded down the highway straight for town, once it was certain the bolsheviki line was broken. The left division moved to the north, after breaking the line, encircled on the second day among other troops the Chilean brigade, which resisted until only seventy were left.

Destroy Two Divisions.

These three divisions in a short fight practically destroyed the bolsheviki Thirty-eighth infantry division and the Seventeenth cavalry division outside of Zitomir.

Polish cavalry moved so quickly after the fight that it captured Zitomir, railway station and several trains about to start away full of bolsheviki. One squadron overtook and captured a train which already had pulled out. This resulted in a wild panic in the town, the bolsheviki fleeing across the river, driving many before them. Included in the Zitomir booty were ten guns, one English tank, wireless outfit, and the headquarters of the Thirty-eighth bolsheviki infantry division.

Circle and Trap Enemies.

The infantry, with the exception of that needed to secure the line of "Petrom," near Zitomir, turned north and south, continuing the pursuit.

Meanwhile, the Third army continued its successive advance from the north, driving before it the defeated bolsheviki troops in the direction of the Kovel-Kiev railway. Its left and eastern flank was Gen. Romanov's cavalry brigade of three regiments.

By fast marching the brigade cut off the greater part of the bolsheviki retreating east, and ultimately established connection with Drzep's brigade in the neighborhood of Malin. Two cavalry brigades held the ground until the infantry arrived from the northwest and south, thus completing the first encirclement as planned and leading to a surrender of large num-

"SEEKING PLACE IN SUN"

BUENOS AIRES, May 21.—Chile and Bolivia are cooperating firmly to find a solution of the problem by which Chile will obtain an outlet to the Pacific and Peru will have to yield, according to the statement.

"With regard to Peru, the only thing she will be able to do is to yield to necessity, which at the same time is justice, and I am convinced that as a Chilean, I am entitled to do so," said a plebiscite in favor of the proposal.

"Both countries are trying to find an amicable solution of the problem. The definite form which the solution will take is not known—whether Arica will be declared a free port or a strip of Chile."

One of the first acts of De la Huerta was to cede to Bolivia with the internationalization of the railroad. But some solution we will have to find, and the governments of Chile and Bolivia will cooperate firmly in this sense.

De la Huerta was escorted by picked mounted troops, conspicuous among them the swarthy faced Yaquis, native of the state of Sonora. The president is known to be ill and the paleness in his face indicated suffering.

In a speech to the Chamber of Deputies and the Senate, Dr. Adolfo de la Huerta, at 5:10 this afternoon, became provisional president of Mexico, the tenth person at the head of the republic since Porfirio Diaz.

The new president entered the chamber of deputies at 5:08 and a few minutes later he was on the way to the national palace accompanied by the members of the cabinet, the senators, all classes joining in the demonstration.

In a speech to the Chamber of Deputies and the Senate, Dr. Adolfo de la Huerta, at 5:10 this afternoon, became provisional president of Mexico, the tenth person at the head of the republic since Porfirio Diaz.

The new president entered the chamber of deputies at 5:08 and a few minutes later he was on the way to the national palace accompanied by the members of the cabinet, the senators, all classes joining in the demonstration.

De la Huerta was escorted by picked mounted troops, conspicuous among them the swarthy faced Yaquis, native of the state of Sonora. The president is known to be ill and the paleness in his face indicated suffering.

COMMONS O.K. ON MANY CLAUSES IN HOME RULE BILLMore Barracks Destroyed in Ireland.

LONDON, June 2.—The house of commons today resumed consideration of the home rule bill in committee. Clauses four, five, and six were carried without important amendment. Only two noteworthy points were raised, the first, an amendment proposing to omit the subsection reserving to the imperial parliament control of the armed forces, which was suggested with division; the second, the clause in the bill empowering the constitution of a separate postal service for Ireland in the event of the two Irish parliaments agreeing to unite. This provision was opposed by Sir Edward Carson and many members on both sides of the house, and eventually the government, although desirous of retaining the clause, agreed to reconsider the matter at a later stage.

Two Seats of Government.

Clauses seven and eight were adopted, the government accepting Sir Edward Carson's amendment providing that the seats of government should be in Belfast, or such other place as the Irish parliament themselves should determine.

The house adjourned while still discussing an amendment to clause nine, proposing that control of the Irish police should not be surrendered to the Irish parliaments for six years. Walter Hume Long, first lord of the admiralty, told the committee that the short period provided by the bill, legalized the record for courage and devotion of the Irish police during recent months "in the face of a cowardly and horrible vendetta."

READY FOR DOMINION?

LONDON, June 2.—Sir Horace Plunkett, leader of the Irish moderates, most of whom have been Southern Unionists, in a letter to the London Times today, said that the short period provided by the bill, legalized the record for courage and devotion of the Irish police during recent months "in the face of a cowardly and horrible vendetta."

It is time with it the tide. Six months hence it might be that the British government, though I cannot speak for it, that it would now accept. Of this much I am certain: If Great Britain and Ulster jointly offered, and the Sinn Fein accepted, the status of a self-governing dominion, Ireland would be no longer cursed with the Ulster difficulty nor England with the Sinn Fein.

The significance of this letter lies in the fact that Plunkett is in touch with all shades of opinion in Irish life.

DUBLIN, June 2.—The destruction of small police barracks is being carried on in Southern Ireland, and the latest set includes attacks in four towns, as follows: Clara, Geashill and Portabell, in County Offaly; and Cremesgar, Sergt. Fitzpatrick was dangerously wounded. At Blarney the raiders used high explosives and blew up a portion of the barracks and demolished a large hotel. Attacks were also made on a post office on a Queenstown naval station and on five coast guard stations. The raiders were successful in all instances except Ester to over 400.

Simultaneous attacks were made on two King's county villages, which are over 40 miles apart. All approaches to those places were blocked by large trees and other obstructions. Telegraph wires were cut and a portion LONDON, June 2.—[By the Associated Press.]—Although the only official enlightenment on the progress of the negotiations here between Gregory Krassin, the Russian Bolshevik foreign minister, and Premier Lloyd George and members of the British cabinet, is conveyed in the statement that resumption of trade between Russia and western Europe has been under discussion, it is learned today that the Bolshevik emissaries are more urgently desirous of renewing trade with America than with Europe.

This is because of American ability to supply more quickly and in greater volume locomotives, rolling stock, agricultural implements, and other materials for which Russia has pressing needs.

LONDON, June 2.—Justice Eve of the chancery division of the High court today decided that a deed signed by the late Baron Michelham just before his death in January, 1919, providing for an income of $100,000 annually to his son-in-law, the present Lady Michelham, is invalid.

Testimony given by the doctor and nurses attending the late baron was to the effect that the baron was unconscious at the time the deed was signed.

Asked Marriage Settlement.

The decision promises to be the beginning of a long fight over the estate of the famous international financier. Just before Baron Michelham died, his son became engaged to a Miss Capel, who according to testimony given in court today by one of the doctors in attendance on Baron Michelham, said she would not marry the present baron unless a marriage settlement was made on her.

Guided His Hand, Claim.

The doctor testified also that at the request of Lady Michelham he went to the late baron's bedside and asked the baron if he desired to sign "settlement papers." The baron replied in the affirmative, and then, according to the doctor, Lady Michelham took the sick man's hand in hers and guided it as the signature to the "settlement" was made. The doctor said he was not prepared to swear that the late baron understood all the contents of the settlement deed.

Washington, D. C., June 2.—The hope that Canada and the United States will be drawn into deeper sympathy and closer union for the future safety of the world" was expressed today by Dr. Samuel D. Dr. Chown said that Canada's chief duty was to play the rôle of interpreter between the United States and Great Britain.

GRANT AND THOMPSON AND OUR TEARS.

Mayor Thompson is reflected for Illinois on the Republican national committee it will indicate that the Republicans of Illinois endorse the mayor's political ideas and his attitude in the war. Downstate Republicans may be as fond of our mayor as Chicago is. If they are, he may be chosen to represent the party in the national body. And that may give the party something to sing about on gala occasions. It also will help the party with the soldier vote.

NO AMERICAN MANDATE.

We suppose that half of the United States does not see how the other half keeps out of the insane asylum. If there is sanity on one side of the fence there must be lunacy on the other. We may be loony with the majority in the senate. We certainly would tell Great Britain and France to take the lead along with the fat in Asia Minor, and tell the United States to clean up its back yard in Mexico before it goes quixoting in Asia with its mistakes benevolence.

The senate has refused to accede to Mr. Wilson's demand that we take Armenia. We should make a failure of an attempt there. The responsibility is not ours. It is the responsibility of the European powers which have taken every resource in Asia Minor for its development.

The demand in America that the United States undertake to manage the Armenians proceeds from people who gratify themselves by giving consideration to troubles a long distance from any possible activity of theirs and who ignore evils close at hand where their efforts could be applied.

PROFITEERING ON PROFITEERS.

The high cost of living undoubtedly is the one subject of paramount interest in the United States today. The league of nations, the railroad problem, the labor problem, and even the standing of the baseball teams fade into insignificance beside it. In the popular mind responsibility is placed largely upon profiteering.

That being the case, it is quite likely that the builders of both the Republican and Democratic platforms will seek to capitalize anti-profiteering sentiment by ringing declarations against profiteering and in favor of reducing the cost of living. It will be a natural basis for an appeal for votes. Of course, profiteering is largely responsible for high costs. Of course, we want to buy the things we need at reduced costs. Therefore, of course, we are opposed to profiteers and will seek to profit in votes by denouncing them.

But in the end the satisfaction of denunciation will be about all that can accrue to the public through such a plank. Who can say when a return of 6 per cent on investment, becoming 8 per cent, becomes profiteering? And if 8 per cent is reasonable, is not 10 per cent, and so on? And if profits are limited, will not the incentive for production be limited? Where will the money come from for extension of plants and businesses? It is a question too involved to be settled by a single law to apply to all cases. Therefore any declaration against profits may safely be ringing, but must be general and innocuous.

The solution of the problem lies in forces outside the platforms of political parties. It is in the law of supply and demand. Adoption of policies designed to stimulate production will work in cooperation with that law to bring about adjustment of the cost of living. Any other policy may be a highly moral appeal, but will be little more than that.

OUR LAST LINE OF DEFENSE.

The opening of the Reserve Officers' Training camp at Camp Custer, Mich., set for June 17, again brings forward the possibilities and need of military training of young men for the defense of the country.

Some 2,500 young men from various schools and colleges of the middle west are to be assembled at Camp Custer for a six weeks' course of intensive training. Several similar camps have been authorized by the government in various sections of the country. In all, instruction will be provided for 12,000 to 15,000 students.

The government has failed in its responsibility to provide for the adequate defense of the nation through a system of universal military training. It has left the way open for volunteer training. The summer camps arranged provide the only direct means to that end. It is by no means sufficient, but it is better than nothing. Successful operation of these camps will give the young men who take advantage of them some rudiments of military training.

A nucleus of a wider system of volunteer training may be formed. Even in the brief time allotted some of the students may develop a taste and an ability for military life which will hold them in the service. Others will carry away with them a realization of the value of such training in improvement of physique and character. These should spread the gospel among civilians. Eventually the camps may leave the whole jump of national indifference to the best interests of the young men as individuals and to the safety and strength of the country.

To have such an effect the camps must be ably conducted. They must not only train the individual in the rudiments of army life, but must inspire him with appreciation of the purpose, scope, and responsibility of the military. We believe they will be conducted to that end.

It is a great and important work in the hands of a few men. Every assistance and commendation should be given both to the officers in charge and to the students who volunteer for the training. They will strengthen our last line of defense.

ACQUIT OR CONVICT IN THE ENRIGHT CASE.

Let us have a decision in the Enright murder case. If "Big Tim" Murphy, Mike Carozzo, and Vincenzo Cosmano are innocent they should be acquitted and released. If they are guilty they should be convicted and punished.

For fear of the latter development the defendants favor delaying possibility of the former. Delay allows witnesses to vanish or be subjected to the influence of the Camorra, evidence to deteriorate, and public interest to wane; all of which is of advantage to the defendants and disadvantage to the prosecution.

The excuse offered for delay is that one of counsel for the defense is occupied with the trial of the alleged Reds. It is a hollow excuse. The attorney did not begin that trial until long after the three men were indicted for the Enright murder. In the time already wasted other capable attorneys could have prepared a defense. It seems evident that the delay, not the legal defender, is the thing wanted by the defense.

Failure to bring the men to trial is strengthening a popular idea that men of influence, either through unprincipled labor organizations or other mediums of crooked politics, can dodge the law as well as break it. This idea is dangerous.

The public has rights as well as the men accused of murder. If State's Attorney Hoyne wishes to protect these rights he will take steps to bring the three defendants to trial at once. If he is unable to accomplish this a more convincing reason should be given than the one so far cited.

HECKLERS HECKLED.

If congress had not heckled the British parliament over the Irish settlement Irish sympathizers might not be heckling congress over the same issue. The disturbers who outraged the congressmen by making remarks from the galleries were more honest, sincere, and candid than the congressmen who made the United States the mentor of the British parliament.

Congress set the precedent of interfering and meddling. It lost its dignity as a national body and the United States to clean up its back yard in Mexico before it goes quixoting in Asia with its mistakes benevolence.

The senate has refused to accede to Mr. Wilson's demand that we take Armenia. We should make a failure of an attempt there. The responsibility is not ours. It is the responsibility of the European powers which have taken every resource in Asia Minor for its development.

MOVING MAIL BY FREIGHT.

From Skagway, Alaska, comes a letter which supports THE TRIBUNE's contention that the United States postal service has become a national scandal. The letter was written by Phil Abrahams, secretary of the Skagway Commercial club, to the Merchants' Association of New York. In part, it says:

"The post office department has elected for the last year and a half to send all mail to Alaska by freight, and it has worked havoc among the business men of Alaska. Our American boats could not get a mail contract to carry mail from Seattle to Alaska, as we are informed that the bid, according to the judgment of the postmaster general, was too high, so therefore all of Alaska has to suffer, and we must do all of our correspondence by freight."

We quote the above, not for any small comfort of contrast; it may offer business men here who are fretting under inefficient postal service, but as general evidence of the penny wise and pound foolish policy now characterizing the department. It is the same policy which is taking mail cars off our trains, causing delays by overcrowding, and driving experienced and loyal employés out of the service to find wages on which they can live. It is a policy which is costing business millions of dollars annually, and is threatening a collapse which will cost millions daily.

It can be corrected to a large extent in the United States, if not in Alaska, by providing a living wage scale for postal employés. The congressional commission appointed more than fourteen months ago to investigate and decide on a fair wage for employé is still killing time. If a report is to reach congress in time for corrective action at this session it must be returned at once. If the senators and representatives on the commission wish to retain the confidence of the country and the support of their constituents they will delay no longer.

Editorial of the Day

LOWDEN'S COST STATEMENTS.

(Dawson Commercial News.) Standing out clearly before the voters of the country is the businesslike statement of Gov. Lowden's campaign expenditures, as compared with those made by other candidates, his statement is the cleanest and fullest. The reason is plain.

In the first place, Gov. Lowden is a business man who thoroughly understands and appreciates the application of business methods. He has produced for the senatorial investigating committee, just as he promised to do when Senator Boruff suggested a senate probe, his entire set of books, vouchers and accounts. He did not offer any round number amounts to the committee appointed by the senator to probe the candidate's campaign expenses. He showed to the last penny what he had spent.

Gov. Lowden seek to evade a question. He met all the issues raised. He did not say "about this much or that" was spent in a state nor seek to minimize his costs. Neither he nor his representatives took the position that they "did not know," that they "could not remember." They knew and now they cannot be made to forget.

Another thing: Gov. Lowden insisted that contributions to his campaign fund stop. He checked contributions when they had reached $5,825, and the amount was reported to him. He said he would pay his own way in campaigning honestly for the Republican nomination for the presidency.

These things establish the governor of Illinois as an upstanding American, a business man who counts the cost for himself or for what he represents. As president of the United States, Lowden would know just as he knows in his own state, what the cost of government is, would have the advantage of a businesslike approach to the perplexing problems of governmental upkeep.

A LINE OF TYPE OR TWO

How to the line, let the quiet fall where they may.

GENERAL WOOD estimated conservatively that to print and mail a campaign letter cost about five cents; and this very quickly ran into money. But we clutch from the testimony respecting the defalcations from Missouri that you could put in your eye all the money squandered on campaign "bits."

"NO," replied Mr. Goldstein to Senator Reed, "money does not enter into my mind in such matters." Comment would be painting the lily or gilding the gold, Goldstein.

WE wonder what the more or less late John Marshall, Chief Justice, would have thought of the Eighteenth Amendment. Do you remember the year which went the rounds during and after the war? Mr. Beveridge quotes it in his biography:

"We are great ascetics, and even dying ourselves except in wet weather," Story dutifully informed his wife. "What I say about the wine gives you our rule; but it does sometimes happen that the Chief Justice will say to me, when the cloth is removed, 'Brother Story, step to the window and see if it does not look like rain.' And if it does, I tell him 'The wine is strong.' John Marshall will sometimes reply, 'All the better for our jurisdiction extends over so large a territory that the doctrine of chances makes it certain that it must be raining somewhere.'"

THE SWEDISH SCIENTISTS propose that epileptic be given parathyroid or have the glands grafted.

For instance, chronic diabetes. This disease lasts a long time. The sufferer can be reasonably comfortable, safe and efficient if he lives rightly. If he lives wrongly he will get into trouble all the time. Assuming that he is in moderate circumstances, lives at home and does not employ a maid, nurse, and so on, and his physician at fixed intervals, he will have some book of instructions for home care, since he will not have a physician at all times to whom he can refer all questions of conduct which come up for decision.

What was chosen for an illustration was a epileptic who had been chosen for diabetes.

Epileptics live a long time. Some of them have accomplished great things in spite of their disease. It is often accepted that Mahomet, Julius Caesar, and Byron were epileptics during those years in which they were doing the work which influenced the world profoundly. Woods has written a book, "In Spite of Epilepsy," in which the author, a physician, gives an account of epileptics who were epileptics are recorded.

Why should a man surrender a man's place in the affairs of the world merely because he has an occasional attack which temporarily incapacitates him?

It has been established that epileptics do better if they get a good deal of exercise in the open air. It is especially necessary that they keep their bowels regular. They should not be heavy, meat eaters.

The Journal of the American Medical Association quotes two Swedish scientists, Gleiberg and Norvig, as having made recently a distinct contribution to our knowledge of epilepsy.

They found an increase in the amount of ammonia in the urine. A few hours before the attack there was an enormous increase of ammonia in the blood. Most epileptics have some sort of warning several hours before the attack. Some say they feel better after the attack. Some of them feel better after the attack of their muscle spasms, fainting, bruising and bites. For them the attack seems to clear the atmosphere. As a rule, the epileptic is less irritable and half-gullible after an attack.

Gleiberg and Norvig go farther and try to show that epilepsy is due to a deficiency in the parathyroid gland. Located by the side of the thyroid gland and very close to it are certain very small glands called the parathyroids.

It was found a long time ago that if these glands were removed in operating on epileptics the patients developed convulsions.

The name given to convulsions developing when the parathyroid glands were removed is tetany. It was found that there were other forms of tetany due OME day some one will write a series of books for the layman on the tangles of chronic conditions which jail a sick person.

For instance, chronic diabetes. This disease lasts a long time. The sufferer can be reasonably comfortable, safe and efficient if he lives rightly. If he lives wrongly he will get into trouble all the time. ## CHINA DEMANDS JAPAN TROOPS LEAVE SHANTUNG

Wants to End Far Eastern Deadlock.

BY J. B. POWELL.
(Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service)
(Copyright 1920, By the Tribune Company.)
SHANGHAI, June 1.—[Delayed.]
The Chinese government has taken a sudden change of front in its answer to the most recent note of Japan asking for negotiations for the return of Shantung.

Peking refuses the offers of negotiations and demands the immediate withdrawal of the Japanese military forces from Tsing-tau and the zone of the Shantung railway.

The demand has produced a favorable impression all over China. Even opposition newspapers have approved the government's action.

China Japs for Moderation.
The Japanese reply now is under consideration by the Japanese elder statesmen. Meanwhile the Japanese merchants in China, whose business has been ruined by the Chinese boycott, are urging moderation. The Chinese student organizations in Peking and Hankow have also a favorable attitude toward Japan for the sake of Japanese students and radicals. They believe Japan has been made more reasonable by its internal policy since the beginning of the present financial slump and depression in Japan.

Chinese business men and nonofficial persons now are urging that an unofficial conference be held at Peking of liberal Chinese leaders and Japanese leaders of similar profession for a general discussion of the differences between the two countries and the formation of a new policy to end the deadlock. They point to the good result of the recent unofficial conference between the Americans and the Japanese as an example of what can be done.

Japs Drop Semonoff.
A remarkable indication of the progress of liberalism in Japan in the last few weeks is the policy of Tokyo toward Semonoff, the Siberian Cossack chieftain. The latest news from Vladivostok asserts that for the last two weeks the there has been filled with rumors of a planned monarchical coup. The provisional Siberian government at Vladivostok inquired of the Japanese leaders there as to their policy, and learned that Japan had decided to take no unimportant position. The Vladiostok government then immediately seized the Semonoff agent and completely upset his plans for a restoration to power.

ALIENS CAN BUY U. S. SHIPPING IF YANKEES DON'T

Washington, D. C., June 2.—While giving American shipping interests preference in the acquisition of government owned tonnage, merchant marine legislation, as agreed on today by Senate and House conferees, would authorize the shipping board to sell vessels to foreign interests should "diligent efforts" to dispose of the craft in this country fail.

Sale to foreign concerns, however, could be made under the compromise bill only on a vote of five of the seven members of the shipping board.

While the bill makes no provision for a direct subsidy, it would authorize the board and the postmaster general "in aid of the development of a merchant marine" to determine from time to time the just and reasonable rate of compensation to be paid for carrying American mails.

MASON BRUSHES A LITTLE SALT ON BARUCH WOUND

No Apology for Charges Made in House.

Washington, D. C., June 2.—B. M. Baruch, former chairman of the war industries board, wrote to Representative Mason, Republican, of Illinois, today asking that he submit at once to congress the evidence which prompted him to charge in the house recently that Mr. Baruch had "stolen $50,000,000 from the government in copper alone."

Mr. Baruch further demanded that he be "immediately brought to the bar of justice and condemned to punishment if found guilty and exonerated if innocent from the infamous and malicious charge you make against me."

Mason Changes Charges.

Mr. Mason, in a letter of reply made public tonight, said that since looking over his previous statement he would withdraw it and add that he and his associates stole $200,000,000 in copper alone.

He added that the matter on which he based his charges already was before congress in connection with the investigation of war expenditures.

"You certainly do not expect me to present this matter to your particular friend, Mr. Palmer, attorney general," he said.

Mr. Palmer, Democrat, of Tennessee.

In his letter to Mr. Garrett he said: "I hope about time these Borgia-like assassins of character cease their work or accept the responsibility of their actions."

In his letter to Mr. Hudspeth, Mr.

Baruch said that he hoped "to be affected the opportunity of branding the charge as a vicious and deliberate lie in every respect."

WAR CLOUDS ON PEACE TREATY ALARM BRITAIN

LONDON, June 2.—The Spa conference probably will be postponed again, probably to July, in view of the fact that the conference on the peace treaty on June 21 is too soon after the German elections for the government to be adequately prepared. France opposes postponement, but Great Britain is wavering in favor of Germany and Italy.

The foreign office is much worried over the situation in eastern Europe. It is reported that the Czechs and Poles have broken off relations with Poland and have joined the Russians, but the situation between the Czechs and Poles in the Teschen area is very strained and may lead to trouble at any moment.

It is reported that Poland is bound to give up the last vestiges of the Versailles treaty.

U.S.S. TENNESSEE GREATEST SEA FIGHTER AFLOAT

Big Guns Directed by
"Mechanical Brain."

New York, June 2.—[Special.]—The Tennessee, the biggest battleship afloat, will be put into commission at the Brooklyn navy yard tomorrow.

The lessons of the battle of Jutland and other naval encounters of the late war have been taken into account in its construction. It is the first ship to recruit its personnel in the state from which it takes its name. Capt. R. H. Leyh, the commander, declares the Tennesseans form an excellent crew.

The Tennessee is 625 feet long, 85 feet wide, with a displacement of 32,500 tons. Its heavy armor belt and armored deck provide defensive strength, and the flat waist line increases the steadiness of the ship and the accuracy of gun fire at some sacrifice of speed.

The Tennessee carries twelve 14 inch guns, which can be elevated 30 degrees, one battery of four inch anti-aircraft guns, fourteen 7 inch guns, and submerged torpedo tubes with a ten mile range.

Has Fighting Brain.

The feature which distinguished the Tennessee from all other units of the United States navy is the fighting "brain" which is encased in steel near the top of the forward mast. Here are concentrated devices for observing enemy ships, quickly ascertaining their position, and directing the gunners in bringing the twelve 14 inch guns to bear on them simultaneously. This fighting top has three decks. Its fighting complement is twenty-five men.

Range finders at the tops, on the turrets, and in other parts of the ship are laid on the target as soon as it is sighted. Their reports are instantly received and checked against each other.

The firing directions for the big guns is based on the consensus of the range finders. The "bull's eye" is practically in the center of the pattern formed by the slight variations of the finders. The gunners then lay their pieces, without seeing the enemy, merely obeying the directions flashed on a chart in the turret.

The effect of the fire can be seen readily from the fighting top and corrections in aim worked out quickly that within a few seconds later a second "broadside" should be on the target.

Giant Gun Planned.

Washington, June 2.—A 16 inch gun, which will be two inches greater in bore than any weapon now afloat, has been begun by the navy department. Ordnance officials said today the weapon was only in an experimental stage.

POSTAL PAY BILL GETS FAIRABLE SENATE REPORT

Washington, D. C., June 2.—Favorable report on a bill prepared by the joint congressional committee providing for the payment of the postal employees, aggregating $33,000,000 for the first year, was ordered today by the senate postoffice committee.

When Senator Townsend, Republican, Michigan, chairman of the committee, presented the bill in the senate he gave notice that he would ask for its consideration at the present session and that "enlistment" would endeavor to hold the senate in session nights in order to discuss it.

Officials of the Railway Postal Clerks' union expressed their dissatisfaction with the bill as it was recommended by the congressional wages commission by sending telegrams yesterday to both Illinois senators and all the congressmen in the Chicago district protesting against the small salaries offered.

Wholesale resignations and the total collapse of the service were predicted if the commission's report was made law.

SEEK 500 SCHOOL BOYS TO BREAK POSTAL TIEUP

Enlistment of an army of 500 high school boys to help relieve the mail congestion in the postoffice during the summer vacation months will be undertaken next week by the board of education.

"Due to the freight tieup, the mail service has been badly crippled," Capt. F. L. Beals, director of military training, said. "The 500 boys, postal employees, are working loyally and continually, but it will take another army of helpers to bring the work back to normal. Plans for the enlistment of the boys will be completed within several days."

The boys who "enlist" for the work will be paid the regular wages given extra employees.

LOST—$40,000,000!

Forty million dollars lost in Chicago in a year! This is what Tuberculosis costs us. It is almost as much as the cost of running the whole city. You help pay this loss, now. Everyone pays. Stop it. Help keep Tuberculosis out!

The activities of the Chicago Tuberculosis Institute have already cut this loss in half. It would be $80,000,000 if it were not for the efforts of this wonderful organization. The Chicago Tuberculosis Institute has saved Chicago millions during the past twenty years, and brought thousands back to health and happiness.

Now, for the first time, one of its hospitals asks you for a subscription.

Edward
Tuberculosis Sanatorium
Destroyed by fire—must now be rebuilt

Edward Sanatorium has been caring for tuberculosis sufferers for 14 years—successfully. A disastrous fire robbed it of its chief building, and the afflicted ones suffer. Shall they continue to suffer? Edward Sanatorium asks only that its home be rebuilt. It has never asked Chicago's public for a penny. Now it MUST! There is no other way. Your help and your neighbor's help will do it—will make it possible for unfortunate mothers and children to live. Your help will restore the sick fathers to health and a productive living.

The Sanatorium has grown through the erection on the grounds of pavilions by certain large employers, among them being Sears, Roebuck & Company, Swift & Company, International Harvester Company, Montgomery Ward & Company and the Chicago Telephone Company.

MAKE DR. KINLEY PRESIDENT OF ILLINOIS "U"

Plan Greatest Medical Center Here.

Dr. David Kinley was unanimously elected president of the University of Illinois yesterday at a meeting of the board of trustees in the Blackstone hotel. Dr. Kinley has been acting head of the institution for nearly a year during the illness of Dr. Edmund Jameson.

Make Chicago Medical Center.

So that Chicago may be made the greatest center in the world for medical research, the trustees voted to cooperate fully with Charles H. Thorne, head of the state department of public welfare, in erecting buildings for hospital and other institutional work. The buildings will be erected on the site of the old Club hall parsonage at 2211 Wood, Polk and Taylor streets. There will be an eye, ear and nose infirmary, a children's surgical institute, a psychopathic research laboratory and a new medical school for the university.

Bids for the construction of the front building, which is to take 3,000 feet of sidewalk space, have been asked, according to Mr. Thorne, who spoke at the meeting. The cost is to be $900,000. The university trustees voted unanimously to combine their hospital building fund of $300,000 with $600,000 in the hands of the department of public welfare to insure the start of construction.

Urge Open Sessions.

James M. Cleary, president of the Illini club, pleaded with the members of the board to abolish the system of closed door sessions and institute public meetings.

How do you expect the people of the state to know anything about their own university when the trustees hold secret meetings?" asked Mr. Cleary.

"If the people never find out what goes on in the administrative depart-

HOLD UP ACTION ON IMPEACHMENT OF LOUIS F. POST

Washington, D. C., June 2.—[Special.]—No formal action will be taken by the House rules committee on the bill to impeach Post, pending resolution for the impeachment or censure of Assistant Secretary of Labor Louis F. Post for alleged laxity in dealing with deportation cases. This was agreed to today by Representative Campbell of Kansas, chairman of the committee, following the conclusion of the testimony of the Attorney General.

The attorney general appeared to have made a favorable impression upon the members of the committee. Mr. Campbell indicated that the record of the hearings might be transmitted to the House for appropriate action by the president.

ments of their great institution or learning you can't expect them to be behind you when you want to do something to keep it from falling behind.

"New funds are needed right now for the university. You need the people to help you to wake up the legislature at its next session. The people won't know what you don't know anything about the project. Invite the press in here and let them find out just what you are doing."

"Press Barred Twenty Years."

"I object to this secret meeting stuff," interrupted Trustee Blair. "The press can always come in here. It's a public affair."

"For twenty years the press has been excluded from the meetings," retorted Mr. Cleary. "The board never invites the press in. Reporters are welcome to attend committee meetings, but they are not to use anybody else's word for what happens."

"Well," replied Trustee Blair, "if that's the case, I move we have the press in at our meetings."

The project was taken under consideration.

GIRL, 8, TELLS OF BEATINGS BY HER STEPMOTHER

Lotta Kupczek, 8 years old, appeared before Judge Trude yesterday and showed where patches of hair had been pulled from her head, together with bruises, welts, and scars upon her back.

"My stepmother did it," she said.

"She beats me and Stasia and Bennie. Her children get the best of everything; but Stasia and Bennie and I have to get up at 5 o'clock and look for coal and kindling."

A policeman told of finding the little girl in a box car a week ago. She had slept there three nights after she ran away from home. Lotta said her mother beat her with a piece of gas hose when the policeman brought her home.

Judge Trude fined the stepmother, Mrs. Agnes Kupczek of 2319 West

Twenty-ninth street, $100 and sentenced her to six months in the bridewell. But when he found she was soon to become a mother he reduced the fine and the sentence, and may remit both and place her on parole. The father was paroled and the three children were taken to the Juvenile Protective home.

Disinfection Is Not a Fad

Thousands of men and women—who a few years ago looked upon disinfection as a sort of fad—today think very differently.

Chicago, Maker of Steel

Chicago in recent years has come into great prominence both in the production and distribution of steel. Its location is central for the assembly of the necessary ore, coal and limestone, in addition to being an important distributing center and labor market.

More than eight million tons of Lake Superior iron ore, the best in the world for the making of wrought steel, find their way in giant vessels to the mills of this district each year.

Seventy-five thousand men in the Chicago area are engaged in transforming this raw ore into finished metal—nearly one-sixth of all the steel workers in America.

Chicago is by far the most important iron and steel warehouse center in the world. The normal tonnage of the various commodities of this character carried in Chicago is several times greater than is to be found at any other one industrial center.

Chicago is therefore looked to as the chief distributing point for quick deliveries from jobbers. It is this character of shipment which tides over stress and emergency and avoids delay in manufacture and distribution.

Steel is basic. It is a barometer of industry and America leads the world in its production. Heretofore we have relied for our foreign trade to no small extent on cotton and grain. There is now reason to believe that our vast steel tonnage will find distribution even in far-off corners of the world.

In all such developments Chicago is not only interested but will play an important part.

For further information on Chicago's part in the making of steel, send for our Industrial Bulletin, No. 1 which also includes an illustrated description of how steel is made.

WILSON PROUDER OF BEING 'HEADY' THAN CHAMPION

Final Article—The New Type in American Pugilism.

BY EYE WITNESS.

Charlestown, Mass.—[Special Correspondence.]—In pugilism, as in other forms of kinship, the old order changes, giving place to new. Neither in the ring nor out is the successful fighting type nearly as hard boiled as it used to be, and in the ring it emphatically runs to science, taking pride in it instead of in the old fashioned demonstrations of brute prowess that reduced prize fighting to the level of milking.

The new type—as represented by a fellow like the middleweight champion, Johnny Wilson—is married, stays on the reservation, allows himself a couple of cigars a day, gives to the valet the drink that comes with regard to his intractable save the regards paid for overcoat—so what!—Walde Emerson, for the matter of that—is not translucent in private life, and is cool and calculating in the ring.

Prodest of "Heady."

Johnny Wilson is proudest of the fact that his winning of the champion ship has brought recognition of him as "a heady fighter," because such recognition implies his possession of science, and science, not slugging, is the bulwark of all the best of the new men.

Martin Kelly Killian, old infelder of the Buffalo-Toronto International league, who left the game at the height of his career to take on the management of Johnny Wilson, summed it up neatly enough when he said of Johnny, "He outsmarts them. The day of the pounder is passing. The smartie wine now."

Can't Take Gaff For Free.

Science dethroned Mike O'Dowd, and put Wilson in the seat. Mike does not know it, but Wilson does, and of O'Dowd he said: "Mike's the old type with no defense, the bing-bang kind that's dead game, and winning is half as long as the fight you put up, but that about takes him out. That kind don't last only to three or four or five years. They get hit too much. Holy Moses! a fellow's only human. He ain't a post that can get hit forever."

In manner as well as methods, the type modifies. I spent a few days in New England, and in every club which is the social center of fistiana here in Charlestown, and I must say that all the dialectical rough stuff that attended our discussion of the game was perpetrated, not by the man who had actually been in the ring and won honor there, but by their admirers and hangers-on.

Clear Speaking Type.

The real fighting men in the crowd were notably clear speaking men, and once when the conversation grew extremely vivid concerning allegations of dubious conduct in the very early part of Mr. Jack Dempsey's career, Mr. Johnny Wilson hunched himself upward in his chair, surveyed his comrade with a sharp eye and said, "What the hell—let's not talk about that!"

The conversation moved on to other matters forthwith.

In fact, the Morning Glories are supposed to live up to a certain motto depending from their green painted walls, and with the timely assistance of an old adage as Johnny Wilson provides, "We live up to it as closely, I fancy, as any of us live up to our mottoes." Their motto reads:

This is a Gentleman's Club.
Remember Actions Speak
Louder Than Words.

TribuneDecisions

Decisions of THE TRIBUNE fight record were: Eddie Clifford knocked out Kid Schlosser [11]. At Philadelphia—Harry Greh beat Clay Turner [8]. Johnny Murray knocked out Artie [8]. Eddie Flynn beat Tom Fal Morgan [8]. Jack Britton beat Young Kilbane [8].

KILBANE OUTPOINTED BY YOUNG CHANEY IN FIVE OF EIGHT ROUNDS

Philadelphia, Pa., June 2.—[Special]

Young Andy Chaney, of Philadelphia, outpointed Johnny Kilbane, featherweight champion of the world, in an eight round bout at the Ice Palace to a decision. Chaney won all the rounds except the last event in a relay. Wallack of Austin was individual star, collecting sixteen points. Kreig of Morgan Park was a close second, with thirteen. *

Jack Sharkey, bantamweight, says Tex Rickard has promised him the next bout to be staged in New York under the Walker boxing law. He doesn't know the name of the man who will be his opponent.

Nothing fell when Eddie Fitz-Johnny Kilbane, the New York conqueror on points of Lew Tenner, and Pal Moran of New Orleans collided. Fitz-Johnny won all the way, but he failed to show any Babe Ruth hitting ability.

Workout for Britton. Johnny Kilbane fought in the earlier rounds as he did in the last two he would have won the bout.

Workout for Britton.

Jack Britton, middleweight of the present day crop of champions by virtue of having seen thirty-seven summers, had an eight round workout with Young Joe Borrell. As expected, Britton outpointed Borrell. It was a pleasant bout, Borrell showing a willingness to swap punches with the champion.

Young Greh beat Harry Turner, the St. Paul Indian, as a punching bag over the eight round route. Greh weighed 168 and Turner 173. Greh tried for a knockout, but Turner managed to stay the limit.

Murray Stops Root. Johnny Kilbane finished Artie Root in the fifth round of their schedule six round bout. Despite the time results of twelve rounds, Murray stopped Root.

As to outward aspect I found Wilson a modest dresser, sporting only one jewel. He wears his hair pompadour, is sallow in complexion, has heavy black eyebrows, watchful blue eyes, and a good, pointed chin. A large heavy hand and fingers, he decidedly a Hebric cast of countenance, but remember, as he pointed out with a shy kind of pride that I liked, Johnny Wilson is a Knight of Columbus.

Two Camp Grant Boxers

Eddie Clifford knocked out Schlosser of Fort Thomas in the first round. Morgan defeated Grumbach, Camp Taylor. Other results:

Schiff, Camp Grant, lost to Newsom, Camp Sherman.

Packy, Camp Taylor, defeated Savare, Camp Sherman.

Willard, Fort Thomas, knocked out Benson, University of Chicago.

Camp Sherman, University of Chicago, defeated Furtach, Fort Crook, defeated Davis, Camp Funston.

SPION KOP WINS ENGLISH DERBY; ARCHAIC SECOND

Woods and Waters by LARRY ST. JOHN

NAPERVILLE, Ill.—had a problem. Perhaps some reader can solve it, and thereby earn the everlasting gratitude of that community. A resident of the town writes:

"Every year, from the 10th to the 15th of August, a swarm of many hundreds of blackbirds take possession of the trees and the paths of my own and my neighbor's premises. For several months—until cold weather comes—these pests occupy our trees and sidewalks, so that our streets are avoided by pedestrians, and the air of the neighborhood, especially in the weather, is made almost intolerable to breathe. During the day these birds fly over our town, soon after daybreak in the morning.

"In the betting Spion Kop was 16 to 1 and Archaic 10 to 1, while almost anywhere among the layers of odds as high as 50 to 1 could be obtained on Spion Kop. Nineteen horses faced the starter.

Rings and Queen There.

The attendance of King George and Queen Mary, and numerous titled persons, made the event the name "the pick-hat derby."

It was declared to have been the most splendid scene on the historic race course in the memory of those present. Field Marshal Haig, former Premier Asquith and Lords Derby, Chaplin, Durham and Lonsdale were among the many notables present.

Thousands of persons camped all night on the course, and at daybreak still thousands of others trooped along the various roads or came to The Downs in automobiles, taxicabs, dog carts and jaunting cars. Numerous coaches of fours were to be seen along the roadways carrying their gaily dressed racing enthusiasts to the track.

Rich for Books.

The result of the race proved a windfall for the bookmakers for enormous sums had been wagered, ranging from a shilling to hundreds of pounds, on the badly defeated favorites. Women thronged about the bookmakers, leaving heavy bets.

EXCESS LAND TAX OPPOSED BY FARMERS' VOTE

400,000 Take Part in
First Referendum.

The results of the first referendum taken among farmers on national questions by the American Farm Bureau federation were made public yesterday. The vote shows an overwhelming majority against a bill now before congress levying a 1 per cent tax on the ownership of land in excess of $10,000.

The report was made by the executive committee of the federation, now in session at the Hotel Sherman. Nearly 400,000 farmers voted.

It is planned to take other referendums, shortly, notably on the question of making arbitration compulsory in all labor disputes and on the repeal of the Adamson and Townsend laws.

At the instance of New England delegates the question of woman's importance in the federation will be taken up during the meeting here. The committee has been directed to appoint a national advisory board of women to serve until the constitution of the federation can be revised to include women members of the national board.

Other action taken by the committee was the creation of a bureau of agricultural economics, whose duty would take up the problem of settling the controversy existing between the producer and the packer and also to study world conditions in the agricultural field and their probable effect on the American farmer and his produce. The Midwestern men have already appropriated $75,000 toward this work.

A census of the railroad car supply for the shipment of cattle will be taken immediately, in order to gain accurate knowledge of transportation conditions.

The meetings will continue until Saturday.

Sanitary Trustees Go to Fight for More Water

A party of sanitary district trustees and engineers left last night for Buffalo, N. Y., to continue the fight to obtain more water from Lake Michigan for the drainage canal. The district is asking 10,000 cubic feet a second, instead of the 4,167 now permitted. The Sanitary Board of Engineers has been bearing on the entire lake levels situation. In the party are President William J. Healy, Trustees Wallace G. Clark and Patrick J. Carr, Engineer George M. Wisner, and Attorneys C. Arch Williams and Edmund D. Adcock.

Woolen Mills to Run but 4 Days Each Week

Boston, Mass., June 2.—[Special.] The American Woolen Company, employing 15,000 persons, announced it will operate only four days a week. The mills close tomorrow night for the remainder of the week. The four day schedule is made necessary, it is stated, because of unsatisfactory and uncertain conditions prevailing in the trade throughout the country, due to a large extent to the railroad con-

FIGHT 3 GUNMEN HAND TO HAND; CAPTURE THEM

Policemen Halt Theft of Whisky.

Leonard Banks, gunman and bank robber, who has at least one victim in his record, was arrested last night in a struggle with three men in a room at 844 North Wells street. He was armed with a long barrelled revolver, and his two companions were also heavily armed. The three men were taken after a fight with Detectives Kempter, Dietz, and Franklin of the Chicago avenue police station.

Banks leveled his revolver at LEONARD BANKS.

He hit Banks in the jaw and knocked him down. The gun went clattering across the room.

Dietz noticed another one of the men, Peter Botano, aiming his revolver at Kempter, and he took the weapon from him. The third man submitted to arrest without a fight.

Banks was sentenced to an indefinite term in the penitentiary—one year to life—in December, 1917.

But he got a parole and came out to shoot EDWIN SHEVAN, former Canadian soldier, on the morning of May 11. Shevan is still in the hospital in a precarious condition.

He does not know where the robbers led out their way or through the basement of the warehouse and had taken fifty EDWIN SHEVAN.

The cases of whisky were handled by Charles Appel, manager of the North Side Turkey.

He is said to have confessed to Kempter, Dietz, and Franklin that he shot Shevan. He gave his address as 432 Monroe street. Botano lives at 225 West Ohio street. The third man is William Dyer of 1523 Adams street.

All three men have police records, Botano having once been tried on a charge of murder. He was acquitted.

NOOSE DECREED FOR ONE SLAYER, CELL FOR SECOND

A busy day in the court of Judge Kieckhefer Scanlan:

John Henry Reese, colored, one of the twelve men awaiting death in the county jail, was sentenced to be hanged Oct. 14 for murdering his wife. An earlier execution would be unlawful, it is declared, because the next session of the Supreme court does not open until autumn.

Robert Broksch of La Grange was arraigned on a manslaughter charge. The jury was picked, the case tried, and a verdict of guilty returned. The state charged he had been brutal to his 10 months old son, breaking the boy's limbs and collar bone. The defense contended the child fell out of the father's arms during a picnic and died as a result of the injuries. The verdict carries a penalty of from one year to life in the penitentiary.

Thomas Inns, a convict, failed to identify Michael Saxe as one of the men implicated in the October 1918 years ago of Louis Lichtenstein. Consequently, Assistant Prosecutor Ramsey, to strike the charge of the docket with leave to reinstate it. If Inns remains later, the state again will take up the battle for a death verdict.

NONACTIVE HEADS OF LORIMER BANK HELD NOT LIABLE

Nonactive directors of the defunct La Salle Street Trust and Savings bank, founded by former Senator William Lorimer, cannot be held liable for the losses due to its failure, according to an opinion handed down yesterday by the Appellate court. The opinion upheld the Superior court in dismissing the suit brought against the directors by the late William C. Niblack as receiver of the bank.

"We think the bill fails short of an allegation that the losses were caused by the negligence of the nonactive directors," the opinion said. The court, in its opinion, is uncompromising in seeking to hold each nonactive director liable not only for his own alleged negligence but also for that of each of the other nonactive directors, which cannot be done."

Accused Store Employee's Case Continued to June 15

When will producers stop giving us long drawn out, trite accounts of the poor little girl who laboriously climbs from the slime in which she chances to be born to the top of the ladder? There are other endings when they can tell unusual incidents and fine acting, but repetition of the same old thing, grows tedious.

Anne Cornwall, as Virginia, the daughter of the rather weedy Clemons family, seems to be an aristocrat. So she is pictured in a long, flowing, white dress, rioting on the primrose path, her father intoxicated in the corner saloon, and her brother plotting with evil companions, she slips away. By the simple expedient of crossing a few city streets she "goes to seek her birth-right."

And where do you ask, does she find it? Where but in a busy millinery shop belonging to one Mr. Pauker, youthful and handsome. Of course, the struggle is lengthy and hard. And once she is threatened with dire defeat, for the wicked brother appears on the scene to frustrate her well laid plans. But you're fairly sure from the beginning that everything's going to come out all right.

It's too bad that this nice little actress was given such a droll play. She and Edward Coxen did their best to pull it through, but it couldn't be done.

NASTURTIUMS

BY FRANK RIDGWAY.

With a packet of nasturtium seed, that old rusty wire fence and the half-rotted post in the back yard can be transformed into a solid wall of red and yellow flowers in a short time. It's a cheap way to hide some dingy looking objects around the home.

Nasturtiums do not ask for rich soil, deep mellow seedbeds and constant care, like most flowers. In fact, their requirements are few, and there is no surer bloomer in the long list of annuals.

Neither is there an annual with such brilliant colors that offer a variety of delicate shades, or one that gives a better fragrance.

They grow and thrive on poor soil, even among rocks, and fit in with the surroundings as though they belonged there. The tall nasturtiums, the climbing or trailing varieties, are valuable climbers for fences, old walls, or small overgrown steps in the garden, stumps, pounds, and to drop from window boxes. There are so many places that the climber can be used if the vines are directed when they become long enough to begin trailing over objects. They not only produce numerous blossoms, but furnish a variety of attractive foliage.

The dwarf varieties are fine for borders. Flowers will be furnished throughout the summer, and often until frost, from a narrow edging about a foot long. The dwarfs add bright spots to the lawn, and with their good forms they make a beautiful bowl for small decorations.

One of the most successful flower beds along the north shore says he gives the nasturtium the poorest soil in the place, and a location where the sun can get to the plants. They better grow than any other in the soil, the bloom is sacrificed for an abundance of leaf growth. In the poor ground it devotes its time to producing blooms that are conspicuous, and the leaves are smaller.

The seed should not be planted too deep, especially this time of the year, they will sprout, and the seedlings will break through the ground in a few days if planted about a half inch deep.

Vitamines in Onion Tops.

There is not much flavor in a green onion top. Nevertheless there is some worth in it for a sort of vegetable service. More than that and better it surely contains vitamines. Vitamines are those invisible and minute substances which are the source of mineral matter. Their presence in food helps to prevent scurvy, bilious attacks, and no end of ills of a physiological nature. Their presence in food helps the individual to maintain his health over long periods of time. In their absence he imperceptibly loses health.

Exceedingly young children have learned about these things, and a lecturer through these central states tells me that the women of the farms ask first about them. They want to understand what they are. Today we know it is not enough to say they are all good, let me assure you, if these are cooked too long or with baking soda vitamines are either destroyed or their effect neutralized.

The green tops of onions may be used in helping to season vegetable soups, but cut up in small pieces, scalloped, dipped in cold water, then cooked in a little bit of water over a slow fire, the onions will be ready for a white sauce, the whole to be served on toast. A fierce fire destroys delicate elements in foods. A lot of water dissolves and dilutes them to worthlessness, as it might some sugar you wanted to save.

Not Hers.

I found a string of pearl beads in the washroom. I wanted to find the owner. I put a note on the wall for the owner to come and claim them, giving the office number. The next day a young woman came to the office and asked for me and introduced herself as the owner of the beads. I turned them over to her and she left me a box of candy to show her appreciation. The girls all gathered around to see her, whereupon the young woman returned with the beads and requested her candy, saying the beads were not her. B. L.

DORIS BLAKE'S ANSWERS*Just for a Celebration.

Dear Miss Blake: Do you think it would be all right for girls of 12 and 14 to go to the movies with boys? These boys have just started to work, so they want to treat us to a show. Our mothers know and approve of the boys.

ANXIOUS.

I'll tell you what you do. Until you are two years older and then have the celebration. By that time the boys could take you to a real show, but it wouldn't look well for two such very young ladies to be going out with young men.

WHEAT TRADING FOR DECEMBER STARTS JULY 15

BY CHARLES D. MICHAELS.

Trading in wheat should be resumed on July 15 for December delivery. This was the decision of the committee of sixteen at its conference here yesterday. The notice sent out was that trading should be under as liberal a contract, so far as delivery of grades is concerned, as might seem reasonable to each exchange, and under such regulatory powers by boards of directors as such exchange might deem necessary to preserve the integrity of its contracts.

The recommendation of the committee is to be referred to an advisory committee, which will soon meet to make suggestions or changes, should any be necessary.

Wheat values have not been affected so far by relinquishing of control by the government. Export demand has been good, and full prices have been paid in various positions. A disposition to sell wheat more freely is reported by some houses, but at current market levels, $1.00 and over, wheat in store hands is selling 10¢/cwt. under the $1.00 level for No. 2 and No. 3 grades of red and hard winters.

Take Surplus Off Corn.

Strong commission houses have taken the surplus of the corn market in the last few days. The trade had an impression that the bulk of the buying of late had been short covering, but after a minor dip at the start on scattered selling on a report that twenty-five switchmen had returned to work at Peoria prices started up, and the market has been steady until July 1, when $1.75/cwt. on 17½c above the inside figure of last week.

Heavy selling by some of the best recent buyers checked the bulge and a slightly overbought condition developed in the pit. A sharp break followed, but as soon as the selling ceased prices rallied quickly and the close was at net gains of 2½c/2c.

Outstanding independent strength, July, is selling within ½c of the best figure on the crop, while September was in new ground. Closing trades were 1½c higher. Rye gained 1½c/2c, while barley was 1½c lower.

Transportation conditions are the dominating influence in the market. Receipts were disappointing, with sample values sharply higher. Country trade in grain and feed, a normal source of a liberal business was impossible. Crop reports were generally favorable. The market acted a little strained at the last and many of the pit element were long.

September Oats Strong.

Free buying of September oats by strong commission houses advanced prices rapidly. Stop loss orders were caught on the way up and sellers of offers had to protect themselves. The finish was within fraction of the top, and 6c above the low of the previous week. Commission houses were on both sides of the July, while western interests good sellers. Premiums were up 1c as compared with the July, No. 2 white, at 15½c/17c over.

Houses with seaboard connections bought July rye, and with premiums on cash grain 1c higher here and 2½c up at Minneapolis, an advance was easily attained. Export sales at the seaboard Tuesday were estimated at 300,000 to

CROP STATUS OF COTTON 'LOWEST IN FIFTY YEARS'

Washington, D. C., June 2.—Reporting the condition of the cotton crop on May 25 at 62.4 per cent of normal, the department of agriculture announced that this was the lowest mark in its record of fifty years, and that the recurring statement, "worst ever known," was confirmed.

No forecast of production was made. Revised figures of the area planted last year were announced at 55,152,000 acres, the area picked 33,565,000 and the yield per acre 161.5 pounds.

The lowest previous condition report on May 25 was 65.5 per cent in 1917. Last year's figure on this date was 75.8 per cent and the ten year average is 72.1.

"Poor to Bad in All States."

"Cotton is reported as poor to bad in all cotton states, and in nearly every county in the cotton belt," announcement said. "The season throughout the belt is from four to six weeks late. Replanting has ranged as high as 40 per cent in some states, and planting and replanting is still under way in all states.

"Cotton production is unusually severely affected in territories. Here, the weather is needed for both the growth of the plant and to hold the weevil in check, yet some rainfall is needed in most of the belt for proper development. The almost sole encouraging feature is the greatly increased use of fertilizer over recent years, from 10 to 25 per cent more being used."

Average planted this year is 55,138,000, compared to 55,565,000 acres picked last year. Imperial Valley, California, has 100,000 acres which is included in the 55,000 acres all told in California.

Exchanges Reopen.

New York, June 2.—An unprecedented situation came at an end at 1 o'clock this morning when the New York and New Orleans cotton exchanges reopened after being closed parts of two business days, while their rival in Liverpool was carrying on lively trading.

Trading in the American futures markets was resumed on advice from Washington that President Wilson had signed the joint resolution of congress, repealing the Comer amendment to the agricultural appropriation bill. This action legalized the form of contract now in American traders.

The condition report was even more bullish than expected, and there was a rush of buying orders at the start which caused advance of 61.673 points.

Cotton Jumps 61.673.

New Orleans, June 2.—Cotton jumped 61 a bale today in the first ten minutes of trading after a delay of three hours in opening the exchange, while waiting for formal approval by President Wilson of a resolution amending the agricultural bill. The government crop report caused exciting buying. Prices advanced 62.60 points.

"The change from spiked shoes into street shoes that have Cat's Paw Rubber Heels is a great relief. The heels make walking a pleasure—and ten per cent easier on the feet and legs."

Walter Johnson

Baseball Leaders Prefer Cat's Paws

Cat's Paw Rubber Heels are also the favorites of other leading managers and ball players in both leagues—Patrick J. Moran, John J. McGraw, William Gleason, Edward G. Barrow, James Burke, Miller Huggins, W. R. Johnston, Wilbert Robinson, Walter J. Maranville and many others who appreciate the comfort and protection which Cat's Paw Rubber Heels give them.

CAT'S PAW CUSHION RUBBER HEELS

Insist on Cat's Paw—the name is easy to remember

Exercise a Choice

When buying rubber heels get the kind that can't slip—Cat's Paw—because of the Foster Friction Plug.

These heels protect you against the treachery of wet pavements and slippery polished floors.

They are silent, comfortable, sanitary.

There are no holes to track mud or dirt.

But be sure that the repairman puts Cat's Paws on your shoes, because

The Foster Friction Plug —prevents slipping

And it makes them wear longer than the ordinary kind.

Cat's Paws are made in black, white or tan—for men, women and children. For sale by all dealers.

"The choice of my best customers, Madam"
Ask your grocer. He knows the high quality—the fine flavor—the purity of everything that bears the DEL MONTE label. He knows the kind of people who buy DEL MONTE Catsup in preference to any other relish and why. Accept his judgment and try a bottle of DEL MONTE Catsup on your table. Serve it with hot or cold meat, fish, game, salads and in soups and gravies. Use it with left-over foods. There are a hundred ways in which the delicate ripe-tomato flavor of DEL MONTE Catsup will add zest and variety to every-day meals.

Once you realize its many delicious possibilities you will understand why so many housewives can not get along without it.
